The threatening weather of the last two days as not deterred enthusiastic cyclists from making the trip to Camp Black, Long Island. Except the wind yesterday morning, the day was an to the to the encampment. Those going from Brooklyn made it a point to go out Eastern Parkcay and then over Eastern Parkway extension Bushwick-ave., and on out Jamaica-ave. This SETMOUR PITCHES WELL AND HITS HARD-EF-route leads directly through Jamaica. The cyclist reeps straight on to the end of the trolley tracks mear Queens. The trolley runs direct from Ja-maica, and there is no chance of missing the road. maica furnishes a good surface. Near Queens there is a hotel on the left side and a wagon factory on the right. Turn there to the right and take the macadamized road direct to Hempstead. Thus food is in splendid condition. The road from Hempstead to the centre of the camp is not of the best, but it is ridadle. The distance is possibly three miles from Hempstead to the camp. Many cyclists who make the trip to Camp Black either from Hempstead or Mineola, do not know which way to turn in order to find the best route to the encomponent, it is suggested that the League of American Wheelmen consulate for that district have sights erected, informing cyclists which route is the most desirable. With fine weather on Surfay thousands of wheelmen will make the trip. If

W. E. Scudler, secretary of the Race Committee, at No. 6; Pine-St., reports that entries for the hig race are coming in in a manner that justifies the belief that last year's record—122 nominations—will be topped.

" Butler and Clinton Coulter arrived in the city yesterday, preparatory to opening the season Saturday at Ambrose Park. Butler is riding in his old form, and competent critics declare that he ill make an enviable reputation this year on the rout, which he will follow to the end, beginning ith the Quill Club Wheelmen's meet, when Bald, ooper, Kiser and others join it. JOYCE'S MEN WIN AGAIN THROUGH TIMELY BATTING.

PLAUSE BY MAKING A RE-

MARKABLE CATCH.

It was "ladies' day" at Washington Park, Brookgame of the present series between the New-York and Brooklyn teams. The New-York men were fortunate in making their hits count, and won after an exciting contest. Seymour pitched a capital game, and his batting did much toward winning the contest. In the eighth inning the home players had three men on the bases and nobody out, and the onlookers hoped that the team would pull out a victory. Stupid playing, however, by Hallman and Tucker was responsible for the failure.
